We speak with folks every week who are unaware of the realities of health insurance and personal injury claims. If your medical bills were paid by the health insurance of your employer's health plan or your personal health plan, the health insurance company or plan will likely want reimbursement out of any personal injury settlement or recovery you receive.

When you receive medical care following a personal injury, your health insurer has a duty to pay for that care, pursuant to the terms of the policy. But that health "insurer" that you've been ...CONTINUE READING
